

Holmes ADA Policy

Students enrolled in Holmes Community College with documented disabilities that qualify under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) may apply for services with the office of CTE Student Services/Disability Support Services to determine eligibility for educational accommodations.

Disabilities covered by the ADA may include, but are not limited to learning, psychiatric, physical disabilities and/or chronic health disorder(s). For further direction, please discuss this with your instructor and/or see the student counselor on your campus.